the Artist Guild

The purpose of the Artist Guild is to serve the needs of Artists by creating unified support through our mission in "providing exceptional arts education and making fine art accessible and exciting to our community". The Artists Guild would be an auxiliary organization of The Arts Center and act as a voice for members in the programs, events, and exhibits at The Arts Center and community at large. The members of The Artist Guild agree to be an active participant in bringing the ARTS to and supporting the ARTS in our area communities through their association with The Arts Center.

Benefits Include

- A monthly meeting with a program to inspire and help artists with their work and profession
- Advanced notification of the annual calendar of events at The Arts Center listing teaching, exhibit, and retail opportunities.
- A dedicated page on The Arts Center Website for Guild Members with information for artists about meeting programs past and future, as well as opportunities in the area for artists in education, exhibits, and sales.
- Entry in an the annual arts festival, exclusive to Guild members, each year during the Art's in Clemson Connection celebration.
- Networking and social opportunities with fellow Guild members

To Join

- One must be an Artist Member of The Arts Center in Clemson
- A fee of $10.00, in addition to membership dues.

All fees will be held in reserve for Guild activities
